

Navidar Group Opens Third Office Located in Austin, Texas

Indianapolis, IN (August 22, 2012) -- Navidar Group, an investment banking firm focused on mergers and acquisitions and capital raising services, continues its expansion with a new office in Austin, Texas. Expanding Navidar's presence with a new office in Austin complements the firm's mission of providing world-class investment banking services to leading companies.

"The Austin technology and business services community includes a unique blend of high energy, start-ups, and established market leaders that make it an ideal place to open a new office to help continue the firm's growth," said Stephen Day, Managing Principal of Navidar Group.

Navidar is excited to be part of the Austin landscape and looks forward to giving back to this vibrant community.
