

Venture Club of Indiana and Navidar Group to Present on Global Capital and M&A Markets

INDIANAPOLIS, IN (October 2, 2010) -- Navidar Group, a leading investment banking firm, announced today participation in the following upcoming event.

- Event: Venture Club of Indiana Discussion on Global Capital and M&A Markets
- Location: Barnes and Thornburg, 11 South Meridian Street, Indianapolis, IN
- Date and Time: October 7, 2010 at 12:00 p.m.
- Presenters: Navidar Managing Principals - Christopher Day, Stephen Day, and Tim Walsh

The event provides an opportunity for advisors, entrepreneurs and investors to network and share information that will be useful in navigating the current economic and acquisition environment.

About Venture Club of Indiana

The Venture Club of Indiana is a member-based, volunteer-led organization that thrives on the ideas and efforts of its members since its inception in 1984. It is dedicated to helping entrepreneurs, investors and the professional community convene to network. As a catalyst for increased investing in Indiana businesses, the Venture Club of Indiana creates opportunities for regular networking, education and information sharing through its programs, seminars, and monthly luncheon meetings.

About Navidar Group LLC

Navidar Group LLC, with offices in New York and Indianapolis, is an investment banking firm that provides businesses and investors in dynamic industries with strategic merger and acquisition advice, capital raising solutions and corporate advisory services. The firm focuses on technology, business services and health care information technology companies. Navidar principals have completed more than 165 transactions representing transaction volume of $26 billion in M&A and $22 billion in capital raising, for both private and public companies, over the past 20 years. Navidar Group is a registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA and SIPC. To learn more about Navidar Group, please visit www.navidar.com.