About Leader's Edge CFO Roundtable

This invitation-only conference series focuses on major issues that CFOs and finance executives are facing and offers information that cannot be easily found elsewhere. The Socratic, free-exchange format with other highly experienced CFOs and finance executives makes this event as valuable as it is unique. The roundtable is limited to a small, manageable group size and only CFOs or finance executives are invited to attend. This selectivity in invitation ensures that discussions are narrowly-focused to provide optimal value for invited guests.
